

An interpretive preservation of damage, instead of the restoration of pre-war image. The year is a rendering of of pre-war images. The year is a rendering of of pre-war images of an environment.

A Rhizome does not record time as a sequence, it stores events spatially as layers.
 The "scan" works in the same fashion, it does not erase the past, it does not return to "before", it keeps multiple temporalities visible simultaneously. History is assemblage

What remains?
